

Dear Madam, Sir,

I travel in Asia for twelve years and I ended up falling in love with Vietnam. I went three times a month each time. In particular, I crossed a good part of the country on a motorcycle. I know as well as Lao Cai through Phu Quoc or Kon Tum. I even have friends in Ha Noi. After France, the country I know best. Today I want to give me a little time for a new experience and so settle in Vietnam. Everything is possible because I got my business a sabbatical of eleven months.

I am thirty nine years; I am a journalist for radio. I am a reporter, editor and presenter information on NRJ. I started the radio at the age of fourteen. I am a man of Media and Communication. I also worked for television (France 2, L'Equipe TV). I speak English and I started learning Vietnamese eight months ago. In addition, I also have experience in tourism. During my studies in journalism, I was manager of the Hotel Maeva  in Nantes. I was managing the bookings, invoices, and the overall service to better satisfy customers. I worked there for three years. As I traveled a lot and I worked for travelers, I have a broad vision of Tourism. Finally, I am also a musician. I play the snare drum in particular for the band: Batala. I participated in over fifty concerts with the carnival in Bahia. I also organize private parties where I DeeJay.

Here, I intend to come to Hanoi for the month of May, which is why I set out to find a job and all the advice that will help me succeed in this new adventure. Thank you for your attention and assistance that you will bring me.

Thank you.

-Bertrand Bichon-